AMEGY BANK-CENTRAL TEXAS TEAMS UP WITH JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT TO TEACH FINANCIAL LITERACY

SAN ANTONIO (Feb. 8, 2019) — On Feb. 5, 2019, Amegy Bank colleagues in San Antonio hosted 20 students from Holmes Business Careers High School for a Junior Achievement (JA) Job Shadow. JA Job Shadow provides a unique opportunity to visit a professional work environment and gain insights into how to build a career.

“JA’s mission to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy aligns with Amegy Bank’s values and entrepreneurial spirit,” said Parker Hensley, Amegy Bank-Central Texas Vice President and JA of South Texas Board member. “Promoting financial literacy is an investment that will yield indefinite returns for generations, and it is exciting to see our colleagues playing such an impactful role in the lives of our next generations.”

Amegy colleagues in San Antonio teach financial literacy to middle and high school students at JA Finance Park

Additionally, 10 colleagues participated in a budgeting simulation at JA Finance Park for two days. This program is dedicated to educating middle and high school student in the basics of financial literacy – budgeting, investing, managing risk – all while reinforcing the value of education and how it affects one’s future.
