CARLOS MUNGUIA JOINS AMEGY BANK AS DALLAS MARKET PRESIDENT

DALLAS (October 16, 2017) — Carlos Munguia was recently hired as Dallas Market President at Amegy Bank. Kirk Wiginton will retain his position as CEO of the DFW Metroplex.

“It has been the game plan all along for me to have a strong, local partner helping me build Amegy Bank in Dallas,” said Wiginton. “Carlos is a recognized leader throughout the state, and the vast experience he brings will complement our already strong existing leadership in that market.”

Munguia began his more than 30 years of banking experience as a field examiner at General Electric Capital Corp. and has held positions at Texas American Bank, First City Bank, Bank One and the F&M Bank & Trust Company. Prior to joining Amegy, he served as executive vice president and manager of commercial lending at Texas Capital Bank.

Munguia earned his BBA in banking and finance from University of North Texas and completed his graduate program at Southern Methodist University’s Southwestern Graduate School of Banking. He is a member of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas, an advisory board member of University of North Texas’ College of Business and a member of Park Cities YMCA’s board of management.
