AMEGY BANK-CENTRAL TEXAS STRENGTHENS INVOLVEMENT WITH JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF SOUTH TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO (March 10, 2020) — Amegy Bank-Central Texas, in partnership with SA Works, helped local high students prepare for the workplace through Junior Achievement of South Texas (JAST) Job Shadow.

Led by Amegy Bank VP of Commercial Lending and JAST Board Member Parker Hensley, twenty students were given a tour of Amegy Bank and learned about careers in banking. Students were given tools like resume help and interview practice to prepare them for the workplace.

Amegy Bank is the co-title sponsor of the 2020 JA Bowl-A-Thon, scheduled for Mar. 27. The JA Bowl-A-Thon brings local businesses together to raise money for the JA economic educational programs, available to more than 86,000 students in South Texas.

“Our San Antonio team is excited to participate in Junior Achievement of South Texas’s Bowl-A-Thon again this year,” said Hensley. “It is a great time for our colleagues and families to get together outside of the office, while supporting JAST’s mission to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy – something all of us as bankers can appreciate!”
